Art Unit: 3662

1. Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

On line 2 of independent claim 1, the phrase "capable of being spun" is indefinite and unclear in context in that the phrase in context merely claims a potential for the "body portion" (line 2) to spin rather than clearly and definitely claiming that the "body portion" does spin.

On line 4 of independent claim 1, the phrase "capable of being spun" is indefinite and unclear in context in that the phrase in context merely claims a potential for the "nose portion" (line 3) to spin rather than clearly and definitely claiming that the "nose portion" does spin.

On line 9 of claim 1, the pronoun "which" lacks clear antecedent basis.

On line 2 of claim 1, on line 4 of claim 1, and on line 5 of claim 12, the uses of the term "direction" are indefinite and unclear in context in that it seems that a sense of angular displacement is meant, but the word "direction" is used, which is ordinarily used in connection with a linear displacement. That is to say, there is no "direction" of an angular displacement.

Dependent claims 2-12 are unclear in that they depend from unclear independent claim 1.

2. Claim 1 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

3. Claims 2-12 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

The examiner-cited prior art herewith is of interest for showing prior art projectiles or missiles where there are counterspun sections, as in the Applicants' claimed invention; however, none of the cited prior art references appears to have the limitation of the "third and fourth aerodynamic surfaces fixedly attached ..." as set forth on lines 8-13 of claim 1.
